7 HAPPINESS BOOSTING ACTIVITIES

Are you battling the winter blahs? Healthy You, UMR's monthly source for health news provides 7 activities to boost your spirit!

Winter always tends to bring on the blahs, and many people are feeling extra low these days thanks to COVID diagnoses, disrupted schedules and other pandemic-related problems. While they won't solve the underlying issues you may be facing, here are 7 activities that may help improve your

MOUNTAIN TOP – THINKING OUTSIDE THE BOX

Despite the pandemic forcing businesses to pivot, innovate and experiment with new business models, nonprofit organizations such as Mountain Top (formally Mountain Top Children's Museum) found creative ways to provide engaging content in an educational environment for children ages 4 -14. After temporarily closing their children's museum of 17 years, Mountain Top quickly shifted programming to offer a safe, nurturing learning space and childcare option for local families while the organization searches for their forever home.

CELEBRATE EARTH DAY WITH US ON APRIL 22!

Now more than ever, it is so important to recognize ways we can all do our part to protect this amazing natural environment we live in. These are community efforts, in that they both build and protect our respective communities. At Breckenridge Grand Vacations, every day is Earth Day to some extent. Every year, the official holiday to celebrate this spectacular planet is April 22nd. While the Sustainability Department typically hosts an event to mark the day, unfortunately this year we will be limited to conduct our earthly celebrations individually due to the current state of COVID-restricted life. However, there is still a lot you can do on your own to make the day special and support the health of the Earth! Here are just a few ideas we've come up with and will be trying to do ourselves.
