BRECKENRIDGE GRAND VACATIONS DONATES LAND TO SUMMIT COUNTY HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

BGV's Development Team led by CEO, Mike Dudick, donated three parcels of developable land to Summit County Habitat for Humanity. According to Habitat's Executive Director, April-Dawn Knudsen, the new homes will likely become higher density units for multiple families. All three lots are located within the town limits of Alma, Colorado, a bedroom community for Summit County's workforce.

JOIN BGV AND MILLIONS OF OTHERS AS WE DO OUR PART IN WORLD CLEANUP DAY

WORLD CLEANUP DAY – SEPTEMBER 20TH

Each September, the BGV Sustainability Department hosts World Cleanup Day for owners, guests and employees to take part in beautifying Breckenridge by cleaning up trash around the town. World Cleanup Day is an international event celebrated annually in September that encourages folks to get out outside with their friends and families to help improve their communities.

for Humanity®

SUMMIT HABITAT FOR HUMANITY BRINGING PEOPLE TOGETHER TO BUILD HOMES, COMMUNITIES AND HOPE

Summit Habitat for Humanity seeks to put love into action by bringing people together to build homes, communities and hope.

Summit Habitat for Humanity believes that no one lives in dignity until everyone can live in dignity; and when our broader community is engaged in addressing the urgent need for adequate, affordable housing, we all become less vulnerable and more resilient.
