

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Breckenridge Grand Vacations' Spring Grants Applications are Open until April 1

BRECKENRIDGE, COLORADO (March 2, 2022) – Local nonprofits have until Friday, April 1, before midnight to submit their applications to Breckenridge Grand Vacations' (BGV) Spring Grants Program. The program was created to support organizations in Summit and Park Counties through fundraising, sponsorships, grants, volunteering and in-kind donations, with a focus on areas including health, human services, education, art and culture, environment, sports and recreation.

Grants are awarded during two annual cycles, one in the spring and another in the fall. Managed by BGV Gives, the company's philanthropic arm, the program awarded a total of $316,760 during the most recent fall cycle and $240,860 last spring, to 31 and 29 organizations respectively: funding capital projects, special event sponsorships, programs, equipment, scholarships, educational materials, and general operating support, among other needs. In 2021, more than $1.3 million in cash and in-kind contributions was provided to support community needs.

Applications may include requests for cash and in-kind support. BGV Gives strongly recommends applicants review the program's funding guidelines and priorities prior to completing and submitting an application. Among many requirements of the grant, nonprofit organizations must demonstrate the grant request will offer a measurable benefit to the community. This is especially important and significant as we continue to live and work during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Applications must be submitted as a single document, in PDF format before midnight on Friday, April 1, 2022 via email to BGV Gives Program Manager, Deb Edwards, at dedwards@breckgv.com. For inquiries regarding grant eligibility and for the current application, please visit BGVGives.org or contact Edwards at 970-547-8748.
